HALLOWEEN THIEF HUNTED BY POLICE

National Park Seminary Is Robbed-Watch and Other Valuables Stolen.

A sharp lookout is being kept by the Washington police today for a negro who ransacked the rooms of the students on the first floor of the main building on the first floor of the main building at the National Fark Seminary, Forest Glen, Md., last night, and escaped after holding Harry Bridges, a watchman, at the point of a gun.

The exact value of the articles obtained by the thief is not known. J. W. Boland, superintendent of the seminary, reported over the telephone to the Defective Bureau that one open face gold wrist watch and a quantity of other jewelry and money was missing.

The robbery was committel about 9:30 o'clock, while the students were entertained by the thief is not known. J. W. Roland, superintendent of the seminary,

It was the most notable Halloween celebration in the history of the city, and it was estimated that 200,000 people thronged the streets in the central part of the city, where the parade was held under the general direction of committees selected from the New York lodge of Elks.

UNION PACIFIC SALE

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Prompt denials have followed the report that E. H. Harriman and William Rockefeller had had heart disease at first also, but I sold 200,000 shares of Union Pacific and virtual control of that property to J. P.

Morgan. Mr. Harriman said:
"The story is absurd and what is the use of dignifying it with a denial? If it was the other way round it might it was the other way round it might be more worthy of credence."

It was asserted that Mr. Morgan's syndicate bought the property during a crisis in the market when Harriman and William G. Rockefeller sold the stock cheaply to get cash. It is declared that the announcement of the Union Pacinc holding company was a part of the ageement of purchase,

WESTON WALKING FAST;

DEDHAM, Mass., Nov. 1.-If Edward Payson Weston follows the schedule he has laid down today for his Chicago tramp, he will spend the night at Washington, R. I., which place he expects to reach at 10:45.

The veteran pedestrian arose at day light this morning refreshed by a good sleep and was on the road shortly after seven. Weston is ahead of his record, made forty years ago, and this fact, coupled with the excellent condition his feet, gives him confidence of covering the distance between Portland and Chicago in less time than he did when twenty-nine years of age.
